This year's Annual Biggest Little Parade in Northern California was a huge success—the biggest we've ever had.

Whatta Parade!

It was a big hit—the Parade came roaring back after its two-year lapse. Did you know that Jud Wilson and his Gone to Glory Brass Band have been playing in the July parade for 20yrs? This year, they were down to two, riding on the back of a pick-up. The BBQ in the park was ready with 500 pounds of deep pit beef and 700 pounds of chicken. It takes a lot of BBQ to feed the Parade crowd: 397 beef plates, 485 chicken plates, and 180 combo plates. Not to mention 362 beef sandwiches, 342 oysters, and unknown amounts of hot dogs! All washed down with beer, bar drinks, and margaritas. Plus, desserts and soft drinks sold by Penngrove 4-H to benefit their programs. Thank you to all who came out in support of the event. Palace of Fruit Update

It's been almost two years since the Sept. 2020 fire. Owner Ken Eberts reports, "We broke ground, cut in the foundation and plumbing. The exterior will be the same, open air, like before. There will be some code upgrades, but it'll be 80% like before. The old individual fridges will be replaced by a line of refrigeration, stocked from behind, and four doors of freezer," said Eberts. He saved some things from the old store, like the old sign across the front, and some of the tables for reuse "to funkify it a bit." (Courtesy of Sonoma County Gazette)
