Check Out Our Web Site

We have a great website full of all kinds information. I guess at my age and old school technology I tend to over look this valuable piece of information.

My new goal is to "try" and remember to send Debbie Strain more information. As a group we are missing out on great opportunity by getting our name in front of a lot of people.

Thanks to all of the unrecognized work of Debbie Stain we have one of the better websites that I have seen

Penngrove Parade 2013

Report on Jimmie Ferina

The report is that Jimmie is slowly getting better. He still has a long road but with his attitude and desire to live he will make it. He is really not up for visitors other than family but I am sure he would like cards from members, here's where to send it:

Ron Mellor

The Social Firemen lost a great member, Ron Mellor.

Ron was always available to cook or work at our fundraisers, he did a great job, and his shoes will be hard to fill.

We like to refer to the Mellor's as the "Band of Brothers".

Rick, Rolland and Ron were always together either in the kitchen, helping set up, breaking their back at our fundraisers. The brothers had a special bond not often seen in families today. They had fun at being in the kitchen together and all gave way more than the 8 hours a year required.

As president it will be an adjustment for me at the meetings not seeing all three together, I am sure I am not alone.

The Penngrove Firemen, its members, Board of Directors extend their condolences to all of Ron's family.

We all loved you Ron, you had a unique way of lifting our hearts and making life seem so much better just knowing you.

Ray Soper, President, Penngrove Social Firemen

Hey lets go make our own Pit Beef sandwich, we will get more meat!

Hey !! at the Luau we can score free cup cakes !!!

Yep, we may even snag a couple of free drink.

Oh! How I hope it's Free
